Verse 1:

What kind of person just shakes their head
If their friend has not a home or bread?
Or, knowing of a sister’s need,
Would turn away from her instead?

Verse 2:

But how exactly should I start
To do my best and play my part?
All gifts fade compared to one
That flows out from a loving heart.

Chorus:

So, freely let your joy abound;
A life that’s lost in love is found.
Give, and it will be given to you,
A good measure, pressed down.

Verse 3:

How much giving is really fair?
What will it take to show I care?
These were not the questions asked
By the Son of Man as He suffered there.

Chorus:

So, freely let your joy abound;
A life that’s lost in love is found.
Give, and it will be given to you,
A good measure, pressed down.

Bridge:

Pleasing perfume in alabaster,
Helping hands in time of disaster:
These offerings to God have power,
Like fish and loaves
In the hands of the Master.

Double Chorus:

So, freely let your joy abound;
A life that’s lost in love is found.
Give, and it will be given to you,
A good measure, pressed down.

Freely let your joy abound;
A life that’s lost in love is found.
Give, and it will be given to you,
A good measure, pressed down,
A good measure, pressed down.
